

This architectural floor plan depicts a long, narrow building with a central corridor. On the left side, there is a large room with a diagonal line, possibly representing a ramp or a large window. Adjacent to this is a smaller room with a door. The central corridor runs the length of the building, with several rooms branching off. On the right side, there is a large room with a door. The plan includes various architectural details such as doors, windows, and room divisions. The building is situated on a sloping site, as indicated by the curved lines at the bottom.
